Most People Will Eat Turkey With Family, Friends Today

By JANET ROBINSON

On this fine Thanksgiving day we thought it might be interesting to note what others are doing, so we started through the alphabet and have a cross section of the doings of Ellinwoodites today.

Bonner and Elizabeth Adams, 4502 Pacific Coast Hwy., are entertaining Mrs. mother and grandmother, Mrs. Marguerite Adams and Mrs. K. L. Perry, both of Hermosa Beach. Liz, Bonner and their four children will make it a dinner party of eight.

Carl and Ann Costello and daughter Carol, 4608 Highgrove, will spend their first Thanksgiving alone. As Ann says, it is a new experience. Heretofore they have always had someone out here visiting. Both of their families are in Chicago.

Richard and Loradel DeArmitt and Ricky, Michelle and Debbie are going to Dick's mother's home in Los Angeles for their Thanksgiving dinner. There will be a family reunion as the children's great-grandmother and great-grandfather, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Lowry of Los Angeles, will be there, too, along with his brother and his family. There will be 14 at the dinner today.

Donald and Elaine Everett, 4806 Green Meadows, are having a family dinner at their home. Donald's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Everett, Culver City, and his two brothers, Gale and Harold, and their families, will make up a party of 18 along with the four Everett children, Dale, Susan, Donnie and Debbie.

Bill and Doris Forrest and their two children, Kathy and Brian, are traveling to Doris' mother's in Monrovia for Thanksgiving dinner where they will be with her mother and stepfather, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Fitzsimmons, and her brother, Barton Ahlf, and his family.

Sue Goode and her three children, Jean, Linda and Nancy, are joining their husband and father, Nathan, for their Thanksgiving Day in Inyokern where Nathan is staying for two weeks on business.

Paul and Donis Helm and son Johnnie, 5602 Riviera Way, are having dinner at home but 5-year-old daughter Karen went to San Francisco with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Heim, where they are visiting her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Heim, and her brand new cousin.

Douglas and Sally Irvine and their two sons, Douglas and Brian, of 4439 Newton, are spending a quiet Thanksgiving at home today after having a farewell dinner last Friday for Doug's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar J. Irvine of Brentwood, and then seeing their sail for Hawaii last Tuesday.

Sally's mother, Mrs. Jean Miller, and Doug's brother, Dr. Gordon Irvine, are flying over to join them on Dec. 26 and the four of them will spend two weeks in Hawaii before they all return home together in January.

Darrell and Virginia Jung and their three children, Gary, Stevie and Darrellyn, are going to Darrell's father's home in Reseda for their Thanksgiving dinner. Mr. and Mrs. Lee Jung will also have Darrell's three sisters and their families to dinner, which will make a family gathering 23-strong. This will be the first big family dinner for 3-week-old Darrellyn who was born on Oct. 26.

Glenn and Ellen Kirtley, 23624 Susana are having Glenn's brothers and their families in for dinner today. They are Mr. and Mrs. Gay Kirtley, Santa Paula, and Mr. and Mrs. Leo Kirtley and their three children, Inglewood. They join the Kirtleys' three children, Gary, Floyd and Wayne.

Lelan and Marilyn Livingston and their son, Stevan, and daughter, Susan, are attending church this morning and then going to Marilyn's sister's in Hermosa for dinner. Her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Westphal, are the only members of their family out here—Marilyn's family live in Illinois and Lelan's in Nebraska.

Michael and Margaret McElroy are entertaining Margaret's mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Callahan, Los Angeles, and her sister and husband and children, Mr. and Mrs. James McCoy, Betty, and Dan.

Donald and Joan Nelson and daughters Patricia and Cathy, 5108 Pacific Coast Hwy, are having Donald's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Neilson, and his aunt, Cory Nelson, Inglewood, in for dinner today.

Glen and Virginia O'Berst and daughters, Susan, Kathleen and Candee, of 23714 Susana, are spending a quiet Thanksgiving at home. No relatives live here in California, and so they are taking Thanksgiving as a day of rest from the busy season's activities.

Frank and Jeanne Pope are having Frank's two sisters, Pam and Phyllis Pope, over for dinner today along with some friends, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sullivan.

Maurice and Jo Quinn are planning to go to Knott's Berry Farm with their three children in their brand new station wagon!

Roland and Agnes Rogers are spending the day in Santa Monica with Agnes' family, Mr. and Mrs. Nick Martino, and her sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. T. Graff.

Harry and Joyce Shires and son Steven are spending the Thanksgiving holidays in Death Valley. They were joined by Joyce's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Ferguson, Inglewood. All of them are camping out in the balmy weather.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Tanner, 4811 Highgrove, and their two sons, Lewis and David, are having a family Thanksgiving at home.

John and Mary Wilhelm have John's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Wilhelm, Altadena, visiting them over the holidays.

We couldn't find any X's or Y's in Ellinwood!

Jean and Robert Zurkic, 23668 Susana Ave., are spending Thanksgiving with their own family.

We hope everyone is having a wonderful day and we can all give a prayer of thanks that we are all Americans living in America!

Milton J. Maxheimer In Landing Exercise

Pfc. Milton J. Maxheimer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lester K. Maxheimer, of 32427 Dolores St., and husband of the former Miss Mary L. Causey of Norwalk, participated in "AGLEX 57E" during the period Oct. 29 to Nov. 4 at Camp Pendleton.

The six-day AGLEX (air ground landing exercises), involving 15,000 Marines from the 1st Marine Division, was highlighted by a combined, land, sea and air assault on "aggressor" territory on D-day, Nov. 2.
